STUPENDOUS SANDWICHES ON CIABATTA BREAD, BAGEL OR IN A WRAP

The Shakespeare	$3.99
There once was a sandwich that always pleased, with Roasted Red Peppers, Olives and Goat Cheese. Enjoy the sprouts, lettuce and unique pesto sauce. It tastes so good, but Shakespeare we are not!
Charles Dickens	$3.99
The Classic - Hot Corn Beef with Swiss Cheese and Sauerkraut accented by dijon mustard.
Humpty Dumpty	$2.75
Get Cracken with an Egg Salad sandwich topped with lettuce and onions.
Robert Munsch	$1.50
Ooey Gooley Jelly and Yummy Chocolate Hazelnut Spread cut into fingers, on white bread.
The Dr. Seuss	$2.25
I do like Ham and Processed Cheese, I like to eat it on my knees. I like to eat it here and there, I like to eat it anywhere (on the Mezzanine Level ~ that is). Served on white bread.
Jaws the Sequel	$3.99
On our voyage we were desperately seeking Nemo but he got away. The tuna wasn't as lucky. Enjoy this wondrous Tuna Melt served on a ciabatta or a bagel.
Et Tu Caesar	$3.99
The Roman inspired chicken caesar wrap, try not to drip it on your toga. Contest winner Megan Elliott!
TheDaVinci Dagwood	$4.75
Another blockbuster.... Named after the DaVinci Code, the bestseller and the multi layered dagwood, with turkey, bacon, lettuce and Tomato.... Enjoy. Contest winner, Janet Vanderveen!
The Beatrix Potter	$4.25
Hop on by and try this Peter Rabbit approved yummy BLT... bacon, lettuce and tomato with or without mayo but hold the carrots. Contest winner, Megan Elliott – a double hitter!
