July 28, 2009—Everyone is invited to celebrate the grand opening of the new Clarington Public Library branch at 150 King Avenue East. The celebrations will be held on Saturday, August 29th from 10:30am to 2:00pm, with the official Opening Ceremony beginning at 11:00am. Activities include face painting, storytime, magician, juggler, BBQ, and the opportunity to win exciting door prizes.

Allan Hewitt, Library Board Chair says, “This library will be a key destination for its community. The cheerful, comfortable spaces, lit with natural light, invite people in to read, to use the computers, to relax.”

Inside the new library branch, space has been doubled. It is open, flexible, and flooded with filtered, natural lighting. As well as expanded space for collections, this energy-efficient and accessible branch offers a whimsical and colourful children’s area, a quiet study room, a multi-purpose community room, inviting reading spaces, additional computers, and wireless connectivity.
