

Celebrate Canadian Library Month – Win an iPod!

Clarington (September 30, 2008) – This October, libraries across the country will be celebrating Canadian Library Month. The Clarington Public Library is joining in the fun by sponsoring two contests and hosting a “Guitar Hero” tournament and a “Celebrate your Library” blog site.

Win an iPod! Everyone who registers for a new library card or has a card renewed during October will be eligible to enter a draw for a brand new iPod Shuffle.

Children can celebrate their library by entering our bookmark design contest. All budding artists up to grade 6 are invited to participate. Bookmark entry forms will be available at all branches, starting October 1st. The winner in each of our three age categories will win a prize package that includes art supplies and full-colour, laminated copies of the finished bookmark. Entries can be dropped off at any library location by October 31st, 2008.

A “Guitar Hero” Tournament will take place on Friday, October 17th, from 7-8:30 pm in the Mezzanine Room of the Bowmanville Branch. Teens, ages 12 to 17, are invited to register at the circulation desk prior to the event, at a cost of $2 per person, which includes refreshments. Space is limited, so register early. Library cards are required at registration.

Get to know your library, as each day in October a new blog entry will appear at www.celebrateyourlibrary.wordpress.com. Read along and discover 31 fabulous things about Clarington Public Library and the online world it connects you to. You will also be provided the opportunity to comment on particular blog entries or other library services.

Celebrate Canadian Library Month: visit one of your library’s four branches in Bowmanville, Courtice, Orono, or Newcastle or on the web at www.clarington-library.on.ca .
