

WHAT ANIMAL AM I?

Use the Library's eResources and clues below to guess the identities of the animals!

1. I usually give birth to twin cubs.
2. I can smell food 10 miles away.
3. I live mainly along Northern coasts of Alaska, Canada, Greenland and Russia.

Who Am I?

1. I can change colour in response to light, temperature or when they feel threatened
2. Each of my eyes can look around separately.
3. I hold onto branches with my feet and tail.

Who Am I?

1. I am the largest land animal in the world.
2. I am the most common animal with a trunk.
3. My trunk is used like a hand.
4. I eat 300 pounds of plants a day.

Who Am I?

1. I crawl upside down and often sleep this way.
2. I hang from branches with my claws.
3. I hardly ever come down to the ground.
4. I need little food because I move so slowly.

Who Am I?

1. I am called the king of beasts.
2. The males grow/have beards.
3. I live mainly in Savannas.
4. We live in large groups called prides.
5. I spend most of my day sleeping or resting.

Who Am I?

1. I hunt at night.
2. I roll into a prickly ball when I sense danger.
3. I hibernate in the winter.
4. I have spines that protect me.

Who Am I?

1. I am a small fish that has a head that looks like a horse.
2. I have a bendable tail to hold on to seaweed.
3. The females lays eggs in a pouch on the male's belly.

Who Am I?

1. I have large, strong front teeth.
2. I eat wood and water plants.
3. My home is called a lodge.
4. I have soft, shiny fur.
5. Our young are called kits

Who Am I?